Is there a better reason to become more energy efficient?

It seems everyone is thinking green these days. But what really matters is what you actually do to become more energy efficient. At LIPA, you'll find a variety of programs and services that will help you lower your costs by using energy more efficiently.

A good place to start is in your home.

Replacing your incandescent bulbs with compact fluorescent bulbs, combined with other new lighting technologies, can cut your lighting energy use by 50% or more. Installing an ENERGY STAR[®]-qualified clothes washer can save you up to $500 over the life of the unit compared to a conventional clothes washer. More efficient energy and water use is also good for our planet. For the summer, replacing your old room air conditioner with an ENERGY STAR[®]-qualified room air conditioner can cut your cooling costs by as much as 36%. You can save even more on your cooling costs by installing a properly-sized, ENERGY STAR[®]-qualified central air conditioning system. Learn more at www.lipower.org/efficiency.
