

Mili Makhijani, Esq.

- Appointed by: Temporary President of the Senate
- Term Expires: 12/31/23

Mili Makhijani, Esq. serves as the Principal Law Clerk to Hon. Randy Sue Marber, Justice of the Supreme Court, County of Nassau. Ms. Makhijani began her legal career as an Associate and Trial Attorney at the Law Offices of Frederick K. Brewington, where she litigated discrimination and civil rights cases. Later, she worked at Catalano, Gallardo & Petropoulos, focusing on professional liability defense, employment law, and complex tort litigation. Ms. Makhijani has served as an Adjunct Law Professor at the Jacob D. Fuchsberg Touro Law Center and is an active member of the Nassau County Bar Association (NCBA), serving on the Advisory Board of the Nassau Academy of Law, and was elected to NCBA's Board of Directors.

In November 2019, Ms. Makhijani was appointed by the former Governor as Chair of the State University of New York (SUNY) at Old Westbury College Council.

Ms. Makhijani is also a member of the Equal Justice in the Courts Committee in Supreme Nassau, and serves as the Chair of its Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Subcommittee.

Ms. Makhijani holds a Juris Doctorate from Touro Law Center, graduating magna cum laude, and is a graduate of Hofstra University with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance.