

Richard M. Bivone

President, RMB Development Consultants, Inc.

- Nassau Chairman of the Long Island Business Council 2009 to Present. Served as Chairman of a Business Group that develops and interacts with government to bring businesses and other local entities to create an economic engine for Long Island.
- Nassau Chairman of the Long Island Business Council 2009 to Present. Served as Chairman of a Business Group that develops and interacts with government to bring businesses and other local entities to create an economic engine for Long Island.
- President of the Nassau Council of Chambers of Commerce 2001-2008 Headed the largest Chambers of Commerce in Nassau County which was a coalition of chambers to create small businesses.
- President RMB Group consisting of RMB Drafting and RMB Development 1985 to Present
- Providing professional services throughout Nassau and Suffolk Counties for Site Planning Development, research, expediting, drafting, processing applications, interacting with Building Departments, Planning Boards, Boards of Appeals hearing and presentation. In addition, providing services from our Zoning, Plumbing and Fire Safety Divisions to support the development of residential and commercial properties.
- President Electrical Inspectors, Inc. (New York Board of Fire Underwriters-NYBFU) 1992 to present
- Providing professional electrical inspections for commercial and residential properties within Nassau and Suffolk Counties and licensed in over 100 municipalities. Provide compliance with the New York State Building Codes, NFPA, National Electrical Code and the National Electrical Safety Codes.
- New York City Fire Department (FDNY) 1982 to 2000
- Provided Fire Fighting services for Engine 222, Battalion Aide in the 37 Battalion Administered Fire Reports, Manpower for the Battalion for six firefighting companies and on-site field communications as aide to the Battalion Chief for all incidents responded to.
- Division Aide in Division 15 and handled on site communications for Division Chief and manpower for the entire Division officers and firefighters.
- Assisted with accident investigation for all fire apparatus and EMS citywide. Also inspected and investigated all types of injuries to firefighters for greater alarms in compliance of OSHA requirements and FDNY Department Standards. Provided Building Inspections for life safety requirements.
- Decorated Class "B" Award for Saving an MTA Employee during a fire incident.
- North Bellmore Fire District Fire Dispatcher 1979 to 1981
- Provided fire dispatching for six large communities throughout Nassau County. Supervised, controlled, and dispatched fire and EMS apparatus for Elmont, North Bellmore, Bellmore, Merrick, North Merrick, and Lakeview. Responsible for designing the dispatching center.